MISCELLANEOUS.

An aged woman died in Philadelphia from fright at seeing her son and a burglar in conflict.

An Illinois pastor prayed for the absent members who were "prostrate on beds of sickness and chairs of well-being."

John Hancock did not write that big signature to the Declaration of Independence, according to the Marlboro (Mass.) Times, but his counsel did it for him.

A woman went to the races at Rochester in men's clothes, to see if her husband was there with another woman. The disguise was not good, and she was arrested.

An editor and a lawyer fired at each other across a street at Marshfield, Mo., until their revolvers were emptied, and neither was hit though two spectators were wounded.

Superintendent Fisher of the Union Baptist Sunday school, Philadelphia, was assailed in church with an umbrella by a sister, toward whom he had shown an uninvited partiality.

Mrs. Hutchinson threatened, at Sligo, Ohio, to do something that would "make Oscar feel right bad." Oscar was her husband, and they had quarrelled. That night she eloped with a negro neighbor.

The Rev. Charles Dana Barrows of Lowell, Mass., took some of his friends out on a coaching excursion. He drove very fast, the day was hot, and the exercise killed one of the horses, while the three others barely survived.

The Rev. Ira C. Billman, an eminent pastor at Jackson, Mich., has parted from his wife; but he has directed his church to send half his salary to her, and has fully satisfied his congregation that he is in the right. There was no other woman in the case, as has been reported.

Considering the number of passengers transported, the list of killed and wounded on the railroads of Great Britain is exceedingly small. Last year there were only 160 passengers killed and 1,307 wounded, and this included 73 who were killed by the falling of the Tay bridge.

A friend of Clara Bagnal of Toronto dressed himself to represent a ghost, and presented himself before her. She was of a nervous temperament, and the shock proved too much for her. She fell in a fit, only to wake a raving maniac. For six years she was bereft of reason, and now she is dead.

The Rev. Frank Marshall entered Fairland, Ind., without credentials, but he was so good-looking and fluent that he readily gained favor with the Baptist congregation, and soon became their pastor. He was equally successful as a beau, and was able to take his pick of the maidens of the place. He chose the daughter of the wealthiest resident, and a wedding day was appointed. Just before the time came, however, while the popular clergyman was at a social gathering, his wife appeared with a child in her arms. He had deserted her in Ohio. A jocosse deacon insisted upon his kissing her, and he did so with a bad grace.

Domestic Discipline in Alturas.

From the Modoc Independent.

Wife-beating is getting to be very popular in this section. We have heard of three cases in the past two weeks.

Stop That Cough.
With a sample bottle of Kaiser's German Elixir. This is the most wonderful cough remedy ever introduced, being mild, yet positive in its action and soothing under all circumstances. Old and young may use it with perfect security. It is rich in the medicinal properties of tar, wild cherry and horehound. Ask your druggists, Messrs. Osburn & Shoemaker, about its merits. They sell large quantities of it and say it supercedes all others. The genuine bears the Prussian coat of arms and the facsimile signature of Dr. Kaiser on the wrapper and has his name blown in every 75 cent bottle. Samples 25 cents. Large size 75 cents.

WHY THE SOUTH IS SOLID FOR HANCOCK.

"Consider what Lee and Jackson would do were they alive. THESE ARE THE SAME PRINCIPLES FOR WHICH THEY FOUGHT FOR FOUR YEARS. Remember the men who poured forth their life blood on Virginia's soil, and do not abandon them now. Remember that upon your vote depends the success of the Democratic ticket."—(Wade Hampton, at the meeting in the interest of Democratic harmony in Virginia, at Staunton, July 26, 1880.)

"Pause here you cast your vote. Think how Lee would have voted. Think what Jackson would have done before he would have cast a vote calculated to divide his beloved Virginia. I ask you to remember those who have died on your soil, AND TO REMEMBER THAT THE PRINCIPLES THEY DIED FOR ARE AGAIN ON TRIAL TO-DAY."—(What Wade Hampton said, as reported in the Staunton Indicator, of July 30, 1880, the only Democratic paper in Staunton that published the substance of his address.)

"General Hampton declared that the Democratic party, under Hancock's lead, was fighting for the same principles that Lee and Jackson fought for, and for which the Southern soldiers died. There was no qualification in the terms used. His appeal was for harmony in the Democratic party in Virginia, and to make it effective he brought up the war remembrance to touch the feelings of the audience."—[From the Staunton Valley Virginian, the paper from which the first quotation above is taken.]

ON GOOD AUTHORITY.

The Carson Appeal proves that Sharon cannot be a Senator from Nevada. It quotes as follows from the Constitution of the United States, Section 3, Article 1:

No person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the age of 30 years and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that State from which he is chosen.

The legal definition of the word inhabitant is found in Burrill's Law Dictionary, volume 11, page 77.

IN HABITANT. [Lat. inhabitans, from inhabitare, to dwell in, in, and habitare, to dwell.] A dweller in a place; a resident. One who dwells or resides permanently in a place. Webster.

One who has a fixed and permanent abode in a place. A resident and inhabitant mean the same thing. 2 Kent's Com. 430, 431, note. 20 Johns R. 208. Walworth, C. 8 Wendell's R. 140. But citizen and inhabitant are not synonymous. 12 Peters R. 319, 318, Barbours, J. The Lat. inhabitare, the root of this word, imports by its very construction, frequency, constancy, permanency, habit, closeness of connection, attachment, both physical and moral, and the word in serves to give additional force to these senses.

This question of residence was ably discussed once by Webster, whose whole argument was that residence was a matter of fact and not of intention. This must be cold comfort to the men who say, "Now mind you, I am not stuck after Bill Sharon, only I ask you what constitutes a resident."

A number of veterans in this county have been bitten by Gilmore & Co.'s swindling Pension Agency. A large number of circulars came through the mails the other day soliciting business, and asking for $10 in advance. The circulars were not dated, but the postmark was later than the notice of the Commissioner of Pensions that Gilmore could not practice or transact any business. The Postoffice department ought to stop such things the same as it does lottery advertisements.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Saturday's Stock Report says: Two reports concerning the sale of St. Julien have been received from the East. The first was to the effect that William H. Vanderbilt had offered $50,000 for the King of the Turf, and that the offer had been accepted. Another report had it that Bonner wanted St. Julien for his private stable and had made a favorable offer. Mr. Robert Morrow, one of the horse's owners, denies that a sale has been effected or even desired. The price Mr. Morrow sets is $75,000, "and not a cent less."

During the Eureka fire the Episcopal church was in danger, and its pastor, Rev. Mr. Crawford, was playing upon it with a hose. A rowdy attempted to take the pipe away from him, saying that it was "no use to save the d-d church." The minister knocked the fellow down, held on to the hose, and saved the church. This is a happy illustration of the beauty of muscular Christianity.

A Nevada City girl accidentally cut off one of her toes while spading in the garden. Her grandmother bound the toe in its place with a piece of rag, and the severed member grew on again all right, but upside down. In her haste the old lady had tied on the toe with the nail underneath.

The Sacramento Bee is for a flat money, silver and all. The Record-Union is opposed to any dollar that is not worth a dollar the world over. We recommend that these two able papers begin at A B C and argue the question thoroughly. It would do the country good.

The Free Lance, published in Nevada City, wants to know whether Senator Booth is a candidate to succeed himself. The Bee is informed not from himself, but from another who says he knows from headquarters, that Mr. Booth is such a candidate, or will be if the Republicans win California.

The Messenger says the mine which the Stage reported sold by E. S. Stokes to John W. Mackay for half a million dollars, is probably the Victorine mine at Kingston, southeast of Austin.

A strong effort is being made to get ex-Governor Woods to stump this State. Stump speaking is the Governor's forte, and the Republican party will be foolish if they do not secure his services.

Washoe county can offer the Democratic party a first-class candidate for United States Senator in the person of Hon. J. C. Hagerman. We need not tell them who he is. They know.

The White Pine News thinks the Republicans of Washoe county could do no better than to send W. T. Hanford to the Legislature next Winter.

The Free Lance remarks that Grass Valley has a larger percentage of children than Nevada City, and calls upon the population of the county seat to obey the scriptures.

Mr. Weed of the Susanville Advocate will commence on Sept. 15 at Greenville, Plumas county, the publication of a new paper to be called the Bulletin.

It is reported that the Northern Pacific Railroad has engaged Tom Fitch as attorney, at a salary of $10,000 a year.

The Post says the Republicans of Elko will declare against Sharon, in their County Convention.

Wells Fargo & Co.'s express office at Cornucopia is to be discontinued.

Nevada Women Should Imitate This.

In the spring of 1873 some intelligent women of a New England village announced that on a day named there would be the best dinner they could prepare for men who would come for a day's tree-planting. The result was the setting out of thirty trees. The year 1874 was dry, and anxiety was felt about the trees. A few were cared for by those who lived near to them, but twenty-three remained to be looked after. Twelve women induced a man to send his horse with a water barrel, and with their own hands they gave to each tree a barrel, and saved it. This is a proceeding which deserves wide imitation.

Small Fox in Stockton.

STOCKTON, Aug. 28.—A case of small pox was discovered yesterday in this city, at the house of Frank Capurro, on Sonoma street, between San Joaquin and Hunter streets. The victim is Rosa Capurro, aged 18 years, who has been employed in the rag-picking department of the paper mill.

A Surprising Statement.

From the Lyon County Times. It is now stated that the divorced wife of Dr. Tanner has exposed his secret—that it consists of a nutritious fluid.

At the Warwick Assizes, in England, Thomas Penn, gamekeeper and land agent to Lord Clifton, claimed from Mrs. Ann Walker damages for an assault. Mrs. Walker, a powerful woman six feet high, threw Penn into a ditch, the mud in which was four feet deep, and after he had scrambled out, she got his head "in chancery" and pummeled him until she blackened both his eyes. He was given a verdict for $250.

As a Commission Agent,

I buy or sell for you a commission—in the general market of Sacramento—any kind of Merchandise or Real Estate. Say this—whatever you cannot buy or sell yourself, at your home market, or that which you do not wish to get or dispose of in person, either here or where you live, I will manage for you here. Any order which you entrust to my care will be strictly considered business, and carefully guarded as such. No matter how large or small, or what nature your business may be, if the thing can be sold, or if your business be done as will manage the order to your satisfaction, and at very moderate charges. All inquiries for prices and playance orders must be accompanied with stamps, to receive attention; and all large transactions are considered cash, unless previously otherwise stipulated. Prepaid samples of seed, grains, wool, and so on, received and placed on market. As a specialty I select Agricultural Machinery and Implements, Mechanics' tools and Hardware, in all its branches. Arrived to the Teeth

Is a very common expression, but we think that armed to embellish and preserve them to a ripe old age is decidedly more appropriate. This can be done by using the compound supplied with a bottle of that splendid dentifrice, Fragrant SOZODONT, which will beautify the teeth and preserve them from the ravages of decay. SOZODONT contains no acids or gritty substances which injure the enamel but is composed of rare and antiseptic herbs, which have a beneficial effect on the whole economy of the mouth. 8-12m

ANNOUNCE

Estray Notice.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ON or about the 6th day of July, 1880, two horses came upon my ranch and were taken up. One is a bay horse, about 15 years old, and the other is a black horse, about 10 years old. Both are now held by me for keeping as estrays. That the same have been duly reported by me to the Justice of the Peace of Reno Township in said County, the nearest justice, according to law, and have been duly appraised by appraisers appointed by said Justice of the Peace, described and valued as follows: One sorrel horse about 5 years old, stocky build, with a white brand on forehead, marked with said brand and J. H. on left hip, and appraised at $10. The other a bay horse, about 10 years old, stocky build, with a white brand on forehead, marked with said brand and J. H. on left hip, and appraised at $10. The owner or owners of said horses are hereby notified to come, prove property, pay all charges against the same, and take them away within six months from date hereof or he or they shall forfeit all right title and claim thereto, and the same shall vest in the taker up, the undersigned, according to law.
JOHN H. HARRIS.
August 5th, 1880.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.
Following is the text of the resolutions adopted by the Republican National Convention on Saturday, June 5, 1880:
Republican rule has restored upon a solid basis payment in coin for all the national obligations, and has given us a currency absolutely good and legal, and equal in every part of our extended country. It has lifted the credit of the nation from the point where it stood, and has placed it upon a basis of four per cent bonds, and has given us a premium. Under the Republican rule, the national debt has increased from $1,000,000,000 to $1,500,000,000 in the same time, and our exports which were $200,000,000 less than our imports in 1870, without resorting to loans it has, since the war closed, defrayed the ordinary expenses of government, besides the accruing interest on the public debt, and disbursed annually more than $50,000,000 for the benefit of the people, and by retarding the balance at lower rates, has reduced the annual interest charge from nearly $10,000,000 less than it was in 1870. All the industries of the country have revived; labor is in demand; wages have increased; and the confidence of the country is greater than we have ever enjoyed. Upon this record the Republican party asks for the continued confidence and support of the people, and this convention submits for their approval the following statements of the principles and purposes which will continue to guide and inspire its efforts:
ENUMERATION OF PRINCIPLES.
First. We affirm that the work of the last twenty years has been such as to commend itself to the favor of the nation, and that the fruits of the costly victories which we have achieved through immense difficulties should be preserved. That the peace regained should be cherished. That the disordered Union, now happily restored, should be perpetuated, and that the liberties secured to this generation should be transmitted undiminished to future generations. That the order established and the credit acquired should never be imperiled. That the positions promised should be maintained. That the debt so much reduced should be extinguished by the full payment of every dollar thereof. That the reviving industries should be further promoted, and that the commerce already so great should be steadily encouraged.
Second. The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law, and not a mere compact. Out of the confederated States it made a sovereign nation. Some powers are delegated to the nation, while others are retained by the States. The boundary between the two is defined and those reserved to be determined by national and not by State tribunals. The work of popular education is one left to the care of the several States, but it is the duty of the national government to aid that work to the extent of its constitutional ability. The intelligence of the nation is but the aggregate of the intelligence of the States, and the destiny of the nation must be guided, not by the genius of any one State, but by the average genius of all.
Third. The constitution wisely forbids Congress to make any laws respecting an establishment of religion, but it is idle to hope that the influence of sectarianism while each State is exposed to its particular domination. We therefore recommend that the constitution be so amended as to lay some prohibition upon the legislative power of the States, and to forbid the exercise of public funds to the support of sectarian schools.
Fourth. We reaffirm our belief avowed in 1860, that the duties levied for the purpose of revenue should be so distributed as to favor American labor. That no further grant of public domain be made to any railroad or other corporation. That slavery having perished in the States, its twin barbarity, polygamy, must die in the Territories. That everywhere the protection accorded to a citizen of American birth must be secured to citizens of American adoption. That it is the duty of Congress to develop and improve our water-courses and harbors, but we insist that their subsidies to private persons or corporations must cease. That the obligations to the men who preserved its integrity in the hour of battle are limited by the lapse of sixteen years since their final victory. Their perpetual honor is and shall forever be the privilege and the sacred duty of the American people.
Fifth. Since the authority to regulate immigration and intercourse between the United States and foreign nations rests with the Congress of the United States, and the treaty-making powers, that the Republican party, regarding the unrestricted immigration of all classes a matter of grave concernment, and under the exercise of both these powers would limit and restrict that immigration by the enactment of such judicious and reasonable laws and treaties as will produce that result.
Sixth. That the purity and patriotism with which characterized the earlier career of Rutherford B. Hayes in peace and war, and which entitled him to the honor of his immediate predecessor to him for a Presidential candidate, have continued to inspire him in his career as chief executive, and that history will accord to his administration the honors which are due to his integrity, just and courageous fulfillment of the public trust, and will honor his interposition between the people and proposed partisan laws.
SEVENTH. We charge upon the Democratic party the habitual sacrifice of justice and patriotism to a supreme and insatiable lust for office and patronage; that to obtain possession of the national and state governments and of the control of place and position, they have obstructed all the efforts to preserve purity and conserve the freedom of suffrage; have devised fraudulent certificates and returns; have labored to mislead lawfully elected members of Congress, to secure at all hazards the vote of the majority of States in the House of Representatives; have endeavored to occupy by force and fraud places of trust given to others by the people of Maine, and secured by the courage and action of Maine's patriotic sons; have by methods vicious in principle and tyrannical in practice, attached party labels to legislation, and have endeavored to obliterate the sacred memories of the war and to overcome its inextinguishable glow of noble freedom and individual equality. We affirm it to be the duty and purpose of the Republican party to see all the legitimate means of this Union to secure the perfect harmony which may be practicable, and we submit to the practical, sensible people of the United States to say whether it was not dangerous to the best interests of our country at this time to surrender to a administration of the national government to a party which seeks to overthrow the existing policy under which we are so prosperous, and to bring destruction and confusion where there is now order, confidence and hope.

Resolutions Adopted by the Republican State Convention:
Resolved, That the platform of principles adopted by the National Republican Convention, at Chicago June last, deserves and receives the approval and hearty indorsement of all the Republicans of Nevada.
Resolved, That the heresies of China that are coming in upon our shores to eat out our substance are destroying our country, impoverishing our mines, mining and laborers, debauching our youth, and making both men and women lower in the scale of humanity. This evil must and shall be stopped, and to this end we pledge the entire strength of the Republican party.
In the language of our great leader, we regard the immigration of Asiatics to the United States as little less than a servile invasion. Should the Commissioners now in negotiation with the Chinese Government fail to secure by the first of next January such modification of the Burlingame Treaty as will practically put an end to the influx of Chinese to this country, we demand that the treaty then be promptly annulled, and such laws enacted as will relieve us at once and forever of the Asiatic scourge now menacing the well-being of the Republic.
Resolved, That we most heartily indorse the general financial policy of the Republican party, which, in spite of every opposition on the part of the Democratic party, has led to the resumption of specie payments, the raising of our national credit to a height never before known, and to the restoration of a national prosperity. But we also demand the completion of the duties of the Government in relation to the silver question, and the further position by the side of gold; and for the purpose of attaining that end we hold it to be the duty of the general government, through the authorization of Congress, to coin into standard dollars or other legal tender currency, the silver bullion of the country, to the benefit of the producer, the entire silver product of the country, relieving the mining interest from the burden of carrying the silver to and sale of silver bullion in foreign markets.
Resolved, That while we congratulate the country on the successful resumption of specie payments, and the splendid financial condition of the country, we are in favor of restricting the issuance of National and State legal tender notes, to denominations of not less than five dollars, thus creating an increased home demand, as a circulating medium, for the precious metals which our mines are annually yielding.
Resolved, That Gen. James A. Garfield and Chester A. Arthur, by their services to the country, by their devotion to principle, and by their unspotted reputation as men and as citizens, are deserving of the united and earnest support of all the loyal people of the United States for President and Vice President thereof. We pledge them the electoral vote of Nevada at the ensuing election, by an overwhelming majority.
